

MNI: European Refining (September 2025)

By Andrew Couper (25/09/2025)

September Updates:

- Sep 24 - INA Rijeka refinery, Croatia - to be operational in 2H 2026 (Company communications)
- Sep 23 - ENI, Sannazzaro refinery, Italy - selected units to be converted to a biorefinery (Company communications)
- Sep 22 - Shell, Pernis, Netherlands - resid hydrotreater shut evening of September 19. Was previously reported that the unit was set for October maintenance. See Sep 2 post below. (Bloomberg)
- Sep 18 - ExxonMobil, Port Jerome/Gravechon refinery, France - halting one of the units (community alert)
- Sep 17 - TotalEnergies, Gonfreville-Normandy complex, France - steam cracker malfunctions (community alert)
- Sep 15 - Repsol, Petronor refinery, Spain - The CG1 cogeneration unit shut for maintenance starting Sept. 14 (company statement)
- Sep 11 - Petroineos, Lavera refinery, France - halting some of its units for planned maintenance (community alert)
- Sep 8 - Orlen, Litvinov refinery, Czech Republic - oil-processing plant is restarting the steam cracker following an unplanned outage. Expected to return to full capacity that week. (Bloomberg)
- Sep 8 - TotalEnergies, Donges refinery, France - preparing for work in 2026 on the FCC - not known if part of bigger turnaround (Bloomberg source)
- Sep 5 - Essar Oil, Stanlow refinery, UK - forced to halt a secondary production unit following a mechanical failure. The unplanned downtime is estimated to last three weeks. (Company statement)
- Sep 4 - PCK, Schwedt refinery, Germany - oil flows via the Druzhba pipeline expected to return to normal at the end of the week following pumping station repairs (Reuters sources)
- Sep 3 - TotalEnergies staff may participate in French strikes on September 10 (Union announcements)
- Sep 2 - Shell, Pernis, Netherlands - major maintenance from mid-September until late November. (Shell press release)

Key events from August with September or forward-looking implications:

- Aug 29 - BP, Rotterdam, Netherlands - CDU halted the week prior slowly coming back online (IIR)
- Aug 28 - Motor Oil, Corinth, Greece - A CDU at Motor Oil's Corinth refinery, Greece, started in August. (Bloomberg)
- Aug 22 - Repsol, Cartagena, Spain - planned work underway (Company announcement)
- Aug 12 - Exxon Mobil, Rotterdam, Netherlands - major turnaround planned for spring 2027 - (Bloomberg sources)
- Aug 8 - Hellenic, Aspropyrgos, Greece - turnaround pushed back to H1 2026. Was due in H2 of 2025- (earnings call)